The Limelitters were formed in 1959 by Glenn Yarbrough, Alex Hassilev, and Lout Gottlieb. They were a dominant voice in the early 1960s folk music scene. They were the musical representatives for Coca-Cola, and their rendition of the jingle "Things Go Better with Coke" was a national hit.

Today, after 6 decades in the music business, The Limelitters are still one of the most exciting and entertaining vocal acts touring the country.

With newest members, Andy Corwin, C. Daniel Boling and Steve Brooks, The Limelitters are poised to "pass the music on" to new audiences, young and old.
